LAMBS – 1818

1818 prime lambs met another flying trade today with the overall average being 192.1 pence per kg. All lambs were dearer on the week with there not being as many good lambs forward. A new buyer in action today which made a big difference with the commercial lambs with that class of lambs seeing a significant rise on the week.

Topping the sale price per head today was David Batty with a fantastic Dutch Texel lamb selling for £130 to Robert Skelton. Adam Bell had a Beltex lamb weighing 43kg and selling for £128. Messrs Trafford, Bassenthwaite Hall Farm topped pence per kilo today with a Beltex lamb which was 35kg selling for 300 pence per kilo.

More lambs wanted every week. Please contact Jimmy on 07827 966377.
