LAMBS – 1880

The last sale of lambs before Christmas saw a fantastic trade for all classes of lambs with the overall average being 218.5 ppk or SQQ of 223.3 ppk. Again handyweight lambs 34-41kg selling very well with all buyers bidding well on them. Topping the sale today was Paul Simpson, High Scale Farm with a pen of Beltex which sold for £120 on two occasions. Paul's travel was worthwhile coming from North Yorkshire as his run of 172 Beltex lambs averaged £104.67. In today's sale there was 566 Beltex which averaged £101.75. Commercial lambs also a nice trade with Texel Mules either side of 2 pound a kilo. Next week's sale is to be held on Friday 28th December.
