

THURSDAY 17th JANUARY 2019 – SHOW & SALE

STORE CATTLE - 504

The Rickerby Ltd sponsored January Show & Sale of cattle produced some outstanding results with all classes producing strong returns for vendors.

Good commercial cattle in demand and with buyers for all types and a strong trade throughout. 2 year old cattle good to sell with those showing flesh regularly £1200 - £1350 to a top of £1395 twice with Limousins from M/s Steel, The Laurels Farm. Heifers to £1285 for RJ & JM Tudhope, High Parson Bridge with 26m Limousin. 18m bullocks to £1295 for Messrs Strong, Well House. 18m heifers to £1235 for Messrs Lawson, Stubbsgill Farm.

Younger 12 months cattle also good to cash and with strong local support they were very keenly contested for with heifers topping at £1205 for a 12 month heifer from Messrs Lawson, Stubbsgill Farm and bullocks to £1245 for Messrs Greenbank, The Faulds with British Blue.

The pre-sale show produced some quality cattle and Judge Peter Dent, Elm House chose a Limousin bullock from A Wagstaff, Pond House as Champion and this was later sold for £1500. Reserve champion went to JM Wharton, Snade also with a Limousin heifer selling for £1185.
