STORE CATTLE

A super turnout of cattle for the January Show and Sale with trade strong from start to finish. The whole sale average of £1024 reflects the strength of returns for vendors produced by a contingent of buyers keen to source cattle of all types.

Top today of £1325 for a strong 25 mth Limousin bullock from Messrs Graham of Longcummercattiff and a further 17 bullocks selling for over £1200. Heifers also good to sell with £1285 for A & D Smith, Kelmores Hills with a 27 mth heifer being the top and again another 11 in excess of £1200.

Younger yearling cattle keenly sought after to a top with bullocks at £1125 for Messrs Fell, Chapel Farm with a 9 mth Limousin and heifers to £1025 with a 10 mth Charolais from EM & J Holliday, Clea Mire. Plenty of 8-12 mth cattle £950 plus and more could have been sold.

The Rickerby Ltd pre-sale show produced some super cattle and after some deliberation, our judge Mr James Crichton awarded the Champion to a 9 mth Limousin bullock from Messrs Robinson, Bog Hall which realised £1100 at sale time. Reserve Champion went to a 15 mth Blonde heifer from Messrs Greenbank, The Faulds selling for £1195.

A fantastic show of bulls attracted strong interest from a good number of buyers and a very good trade was witnessed to a top of £1245 for a 11 mth Charolais from EM & J Holliday, Clea Mire whose consignment of 16 cattle averaged a healthy £1110.
