STORE CATTLE - 163

Today's sale of store cattle again were a fantastic trade and more could have been sold to the vendors advantage. Topping today at £1535 was Messrs Harrison, Hill House with a fantastic Limousin heifer which later sold to David Barker. Messrs Harrison's average was £1391 for 15 cattle. Younger cattle also finding a strong trade with local farmers looking to maintain numbers. Selling to a top of £1385 for a cracking 10 month old Limousin steer from Messrs Fell, Stanger Hill. Smart 10 month old heifers reaching £1085 for TB Stamper & Sons, Harrot Hill. A handful of feeding bulls to £935 on two occasions, for J Bowness, High Waverbridge and R Bell, Whitelees, both with a Charolais X. All cattle a nice trade, very good to sell and providing a whole sale average of £1101.60
