'WIGTON WHITES'

The anticipated annual sale of Continental Breeding Sheep did not disappoint with a building full of quality from the first to the last and a wholesome improvement on the year of £47 per head. Pre-sale judge Ian Knight had a difficult task to select his champion pen and after some deliberation he choose a super pen of Beltex x from David and Will Barker, Derwentdale which realised £320 at sale time. Quality was forward in plentiful supply with £250 - £300 regular occurrence with several individuals scaling over £400 to a top of £460 for GEH & SJ Stoddart with a Beltex X.

A nice selection of Mules forward to a top of £155.
