Dairy – 14

A good show of dairy and a nice trade despite a reduced team of buyers topping at £1800 on two occasions, firstly a super Holstein heifer from Kevin Williamson, three weeks fresh and giving 31kg and secondly a 29 day calved heifer from Graham Farms Ltd giving 32kg.

2nd calved cows finding strong enquiry to a top of £1700 for a 40kg Holstein Friesian from Dundraw Farms.

More Cows and Heifers required for the next Dairy Sale Thursday 1st October. Contact David Bowman on the above number for all enquires

Store Lambs – 1146

A sensational entry of stock and a trade beyond anyone's expectations with the whole sale averaging a massive £113.73. All classes good to sell regardless of size with strong competition throughout the sale.

Today's top price of £155 was for an outstanding pen of Beltex Ewe Lambs and were part of the special consignment from Messrs Bindloss, Shap Abbey. This fantastic run of lambs also contained wethers selling to £136 (10) and produced a fantastic average of £117.63 for 700.

The days leading average was produced by the Tercrosset team with Messrs Whiteford selling lambs to £129 and averaging £118.17 for a super run of Beltex wether lambs.

Yet another outstanding result for Wigton Mart.

Next Sale of Store Lambs Thursday 1st October and entries are invited
