Show and Sale of Store Lambs – 1463

A sensational show of store lambs with a very high end of quality coming through attracting a full ringside of strong buyers from all over the country averaging a staggering £111.42 per head! Sale topped at £155 for the Champion pen of 10 Dutch Texels from D. Batty, Cobble Croft, Blennerhasset.

The show was expertly judged by Miss Ann Little, Hollands Farm, Penton who carefully went through pen after pen of 10 lambs selected out for showing. She placed her champions after much thought and deliberation a pen of 10 very smart Dutch Texel Ewe lambs from D. Batty, Cobblecroft, Blennerhasset which went on to top the sale selling to B. Park, Kirklands Farm, Irton going on to breed.

Reserve Champion pen of 10 was a pen of Beltex Gimmer lambs from Messrs Fell, Chapel Farm, Bassenthwaite which sold for £149.

Third Prize pen of 10 went to J W Storey & Son, Woodhead Farm, Haltwhistle which sold for £139.

A phenomenal trade was witnessed with smart Beltex bred lambs easily making £120 to £150 with many pens cashing at over £130. Wigton is the centre for your Beltex store lambs so please do not hesitate to give us a try.

Smart Texel bred lambs a grade below also sold exceptionally well easily making over £100 and anything with power £110 to £120.

Small plainer and more weathered store lambs still found a ready enquiry of buyers with many of this type cashing at £60 to £75.

More store lambs required for next fortnight, contact Rory Livesey on 07827966377.
