Sale of Store Lambs – 1702

One of the largest shows of store lambs this season with some fantastic runs of top quality and some good improving types forward. The sale averaged £106/head which included a lot of smaller and more weathered lambs. All classes were an electric trade topping at £160 for a wonderful pair of Dutch Texel Gimmer lambs from Keith Hodgson, Prospect House.

Many pens of smart continental lambs traded between £120 and £140. Short keep big lambs regularly cashed in at between £90 and £115. Small and weathered lambs yet well bred sorts sold at anything between £80 and £110. Plainer commercial type store lambs out of Mule ewes were easily reaching over £80 and up to £100.

All classes of store lambs can be sold here at Wigton and we have a strong contingent of buyers coming every sale. Show & Sale of store lambs Thursday 14th October. Entries Invited contact our office or our auctioneers.
