STORE LAMBS – 2484

Well last week we said, 'Seeing is Believing, if you have Store Lambs to sell, bring some,' congratulations to those vendors that took our advice.

Wigton saw a Bonanza Sale from start to finish in the Tiffenthwaite Ring, with a record entry of Store Lambs forward with a staggering run of 2548 sheep sold.

From start to finish all lambs were very well bid for ensuring all vendors highly delighted, with the 1st pen in the ring selling to £149 from Messrs Storey, Woodhead Farm to the last pen selling to £140 from Messrs Hauge, Mill Street, Frizington.

Top price of the day was achieved twice, firstly for a single Beltex cross from Messrs Bindloss, Shap Abbey, whose run of 485 lambs went on to average £2 up on 2021, and secondly a pen of 20 went on to sell for the joint top price of £150 from Messrs Knight, Stephney Farm, Calderbridge.

All classes of Lambs sold to the vendors advantage with cross bred lambs also very strongly sought after, ensuring a strong demand for the next sale on Thursday 29th September 2022
