

THURSDAY 20TH NOVEMBER 2025
SALE OF STORE CATTLE

A quality entry of 261 store cattle was presented at Hopes of Wigton on Thursday 20th November, with additional unentered cattle forward on the day. Trade remained exceptionally strong throughout, with many vendors remarking that "cattle were £100 dearer on the fortnight." All classes sold readily, with the 12–15-month cattle appearing the dearest on the week.

Tarnrigg Moor featured prominently, offering 24 dairy-bred Blue and Angus bullocks and heifers, aged 12–14 months. This outstanding run peaked at £1,860 and returned an impressive average of £1,703.75 for the 24 head.

Stronger cattle also met a blistering trade, with buyers showing tremendous demand for forward and hard cattle ready for finishing. The day's top price of £2,700 was achieved by William and Stuart Hird, Town Head, for a superb Charolais-cross bullock. Their consignment also secured the top sale average of £2,448.00.

In the heifer section, Brian Harrison, Beck Farm, led the way with an exceptional Charolais-cross heifer reaching a remarkable £2,640.

With demand at Wigton continuing to grow, more cattle are urgently required each sale. For enquiries, please contact David Fearon on 07500 173273.
